St. James's, November 22.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of the poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, hath been preſented to His Majeſty, by the moſt Reverend Father in God the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Preſident; accompanied by the Right Honourable Sir John Willes, Knight; Lord Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas, Vice Preſident, ſeveral of the Biſhops, the Treaſurers, the Court of Aſſiſtants, and a great Number of other Gentlemen, Members of that Corporation, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Chamberlain of the Houſhold: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly; and they all had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of His Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Preſident; the Right Honourable Sir John Willes, Knt. Lord Chief Juſtice of His Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas, Vice Preſident; and the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows and Children of Clergymen.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Preſident, Vice Preſident, and Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, approach your Royal Perſon, to expreſs our Share of that unfeigned Sorrow which this Nation in general has felt, in the Loſs of his late moſt Excellent Majeſty, of bleſſed Memory.

Permit us at the ſame Time, dread Sir, to teſtify our Gratitude to Almighty God, whoſe good Providence has comforted us in our Affliction, by continuing the Proſpect of all thoſe invaluable Bleſſings which we enjoyed under his juſt Adminiſtration, and by ſetting over a thankful and obedient People, the Heir of his Throne and his Virtues.

We reflect, with the moſt hearty Acknowledment, upon the many Inſtances of Royal Bounty with which this Society has been graciouſly diſtinguiſhed: We cheriſh the Memory of the Honor it once received by the Preſence of your moſt illuſtrious Perſon; and we flatter ourſelves that your Majeſty will chearfully accept this Tender of our Duty and Obedience, the loyal Congratulation of a Society, which, under God, has promoted the general Welfare, in a prudent Adminiſtration of that very conſiderable Article of Public Charity, the Relief of the Widows and Children of the Clergy, the ſorrowful Remains of a Set of Men, whoſe Inſtruction and Example, by the Bleſſing of Providence, have contributed in great meaſure to that Unanimity, which at preſent reigns in the Hearts of a faithful and obedient People: And whoſe Learning and Labours have vindicated and ſupported that Holy Faith, of which your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Houſe has been the conſtant Protector and Defender.

For the common Bleſſings therefore which we enjoy as Subjects, and for the particular Inſtances of Royal Munificence to this Corporation, Permit us, moſt Gracious Sovereign, to return you our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances, that our Gratitude ſhall endeavour to equal our Obligations; expreſſed in a faithful and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, in a chearful and ready Contribution to all the Exigencies of the Public Meaſures, in promoting, by our Influence and Example, that Decency of Manners, and hat Regard for Religion, which alone can make a Government eaſy, and a Nation happy; and laſtly, in aſſiſting, by all the moſt effectual Means in our Power, your Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions and Declarations for the Support of our Religious and Civil Eſtabliſhment.

May that Power, by which King's reign, direct your Councils, and bleſs your Endeavours, ſecure to you the Affections of your People, and continue the Splendor of your Arms: May your Reign be glorious to Yourſelf, and happy to thoſe you rule over; in Length of Time out-numbering the Days of the great Monarch that went before you; and by late Poſterity, held up as a ſhining Example, to thoſe whom Providence ſhall raiſe up in your Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe to govern after you.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the Seventeenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty, and in the Firſt Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

They afterwards waited on her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, and his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop made their Compliments to her Royal Highneſs in a Speech; to which ſhe was pleaſed to return a moſt gracious Anſwer; and they all had the Honour to kiſs her Royal Highneſs's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford, in all Humility approach your Sacred Perſon, affected with the deepeſt Senſe of Grief under the Loſs of our late moſt excellent Sovereign; but, at the ſame Time, moſt ſincerely thankful to Almighty God, by whoſe gracious Providence your Majeſty ſucceeds to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, we revere and adore the Hand of God, under all his Diſpenſations: But we accept with Joy, the Earneſt He has given us of future Bleſſings, in the many Virtues and Graces He has infuſed into your Royal Breaſt. On theſe we congratulate our Country: On theſe we build our Hopes of long-increaſing Happineſs, and national Glory, under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Influence. Your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we ſhall, each of us in our reſpective Stations, exert our utmoſt Endeavours to promote that due Senſe of Religion and Virtue, which, by your Royal Proclamation, as well as by your own Illuſtrious Example, you have ſo earneſtly recommended to us. Our Prayers are daily offered up to Almighty God for your Majeſty. May the Choiceſt of His Bleſſings ever deſcend on your Sacred Perſon, and may you long reign in Happineſs over the Hearts of a moſt dutiful and grateful People.

The

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Worceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Worceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Worceſter, beg Leave, with all Humility, to expreſs to your Majeſty our juſt Concern and Affliction for the great Loſs which this Nation has ſuſtained by the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, whoſe great and Royal Virtues, conſtantly directed to the Welfare and Proſperity of his People, and the Happineſs of Mankind, muſt endear his Name to the lateſt Poſterity.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, to teſtify our moſt ſincere Joy, upon the happy Acceſſion of your Majeſty to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; whoſe early and eminent Zeal for our holy Religion; and whoſe gracious Declaration in favor of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, give us the moſt pleaſing Aſſurance of future Bleſſings, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and the powerful Influence of your Royal Example.

It ſhall be our earneſt Endeavour, in our ſeveral Situations, by every Mark of Duty, Zeal, and Affection, to contribute, as far as lies in our Power, to the Eaſe and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Government: and our conſtant Prayers ſhall be offered up to Him, by whom Kings reign, for the choiceſt of his Bleſſings to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family; That your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of a grateful People, and that there may never be wanting one of your illuſtrious Houſe to inherit the Crown of theſe Realms.

St. James's, November 21.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters, in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, was preſented to His Majeſty, by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Chandler, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters, in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters, in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, to expreſs our deep Senſe of the great Loſs your Majeſty, your Kingdoms, and Europe in general, have ſuſtained by the Death of his late Majeſty, your Royal Grandfather; and, with Hearts full of Affection and Joy, to congratulate your Majeſty's happy and peaceable Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

The numerous Bleſſings theſe Nations enjoyed, for a long Series of Years, under his late Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and the great Events that were depending in Europe, made the Preſervation of your Royal Grandfather's important Life, the common Deſire and earneſt Prayer of all good Men in theſe Nations; and their Concern for his ſudden Removal, would have been much more painful and durable, had not the Knowledge of your Majeſty's Virtues, and great Abilities for Government, alleviated our Anxieties, diſſipated our Fears, and filled us with the moſt pleaſing Proſpects of the ſure Continuance of our Proſperity.

Illuſtrious and ancient Deſcent, Princely Education, Prime of Life, Dignity of Perſon, early Piety and Virtue, Love of Probity and Truth, Regard to Liberty and the Rights of Conſcience, and your known Affection to this your native Country, peculiarly endear your Majeſty to all your Subjects, and promiſe them every Thing their Hearts can wiſh from the beſt of Kings.

Your Majeſty aſcends the Throne in a Time of Difficulty, and amidſt all the great Expences and Uncertainties of War. We adore the good Providence of God, for the diſtinguiſhing Succeſſes that have attended it; and we truſt, that, by His conſtant Bleſſing on your Majeſty's Counſels and Arms, your Majeſty will ſoon become the glorious and happy Inſtrument of eſtabliſhing ſuch a Peace in Europe, as ſhall effectually ſupport the Proteſtant Religion and Liberties, and ſecure the Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms upon ſolid and immoveable Foundations.

We recollect, with Joy and unfeigned Gratitude, that glorious Æra, which ſettled the Succeſſion to the Throne of Great-Britain, in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe, and perpetuated to theſe Nations, under God, the free and undiſturbed Enjoyment of all their Civil and Religious Liberties. And we humbly beg Leave to aſſure you, moſt Gracious Sovereign, that entirely confiding in your Majeſty's great Goodneſs and Juſtice, for our Share in the Protection and Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Government, we ſhall not fail, from Dictates of Conſcience and Gratitude, to be Examples ourſelves of Loyalty and Duty, and to inculcate on all, who attend our Miniſtry, that Submiſſion and Obedience, which they owe to your Majeſty's Authority and Government.

Nor ſhall we ceaſe to offer up our moſt ardent Supplications to Almighty God, that he would render your Majeſty's Proſperity ſo diſtinguiſhed, as that when Great-Britain, in future Ages, wiſhes well to any of her moſt beloved Kings, the Deſcendents of your Royal Houſe and Family, your Felicity, moſt Illuſtrious Prince! may bound all her Deſires, and ſhe may, with Joy and Triumph, ſay—May their Reigns be as long, as glorious, and happy, as your Majeſty's.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to give this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this Loyal and Affectionate Addreſs. You may aſſured of my Protection, and of my Care and Attention to ſupport the Proteſtant Intereſt, and to maintain the Toleration inviolable.

His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly, and they had all the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

The ſame Day they waited in a Body upon Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, introduced by Sir William Irby, Bart. and the Rev. Dr. Chandler made their Compliments of Condoleance and Congratulation in the following Speech.

To her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters, in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, beg Leave to approach your Royal Highneſs, to expreſs our juſt and great Concern, for the Loſs your Royal Highneſs and theſe Nations have ſuſtained, by the Death of His late Majeſty, of glorious and bleſſed Memory, and to congratulate your Royal Highneſs, on the happy Succeſſion of His preſent Majeſty to the Throne and Government of theſe Kingdoms.

Your Royal Highneſs well knew the Importance of Religious Principles and good Morals, to ſecure a Prince's Happineſs, and the Welfare of His People. And how much are theſe Kingdoms indebted to your Royal Highneſs, for forming the Mind of His preſent Majeſty to the moſt worthy, genereus Sentiments and Diſpoſitions; preparing him, under the Bleſſing of the Almighty, to govern with Wiſdom, Integrity, and Righteouſneſs, this great People; and to be a Pattern of every Thing excellent and good, to all Ranks and Degrees of Men. And when your Royal Highneſs ſhall ſee Religion and Virtue, Arts and Sciences, Trade and Commerce, flouriſh flouriſh under His Majeſty's Protection, and your Royal Son ſhall be ſpoken of by all, as the Patron of Learning, the Friend of Liberty, the Favourite of Providence, and the Delight of the beſt and worthieſt Men; how will your Royal Highneſs's Heart exult with Pleaſure, in reaping theſe liberal Fruits of your Maternal Piety and Goodneſs; and finding yourſelf eſteemed, beloved, and honoured, by a grateful and happy People.

Your Royal Highneſs will allow us to offer up our moſt ardent Supplications to Almighty God, for the long Life, and increaſing Honour and Proſperity of His Majeſty; that your Royal Highneſs may be many Years preſerved, to rejoice and ſhare in the Bleſſings of His Reign; that all the Branches of your Royal Highneſs's Family may be diſtinguiſhed by the Favour of Providence; and that there never may be wanting one of your Royal Deſcendants, to fill and adorn the Britiſh Throne, till Time ſhall be no more.

To which her Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

I Return you my Thanks, for your Attention ſhewn to me, and for the Duty which you expreſs for the King my Son.

Her Royal Highneſs received them very graciouſly; and they had all the Honour to kiſs her Royal Highneſs's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, having been tranſmitted by Charles Fall, Eſq; their Provoſt, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt dutiful Compliments of Condoleance, on the Death of your illuſtrious Grandfather, our late moſt Gracious Sovereign; and at the ſame Time, with Hearts full of the warmeſt Affection, to congratulate your Majeſty on the joyful Event of your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms, amidſt the univerſal Acclamations of a free and united People.

May your Majeſty be pleaſed to accept of this humble Tender of our Duty, and of our invariable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government; and it ſhall be our conſtant Prayer, that the great Ruler of the Univerſe may direct and proſper your Majeſty's Counſels, in the preſent arduous and critical Situation of Affairs, for your Majeſty's Glory, and the Good of all your Majeſty's Subjects; and that He may bleſs your Majeſty with a long and happy Reign.

Signed in our Name and by Appointment,

Charles Fall,, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the High Steward, Deputy-Steward, Chief, and other Burgeſſes of the City of Weſtminſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Henry Earl of Lincoln High Steward, the Deputy-Steward, the Chief, and other Burgeſſes of this your Majeſty's antient City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, peculiarly honoured, by being the Place of your Birth and Reſidence, do, with the utmoſt Reverence, preſume to congratulate your Majeſty, upon your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms: And we do, from a grateful Remembrance of the many Bleſſings this Nation enjoyed during the late glorious Reign, adminiſtred with ſo much Wiſdom and Reſolution, humbly beg Leave to condole the Death of your Illuſtrious Grandfather, a Loſs which nothing could alleviate but your Majeſty's Succeſſion to His Crown.

When we reflect on your Majeſty's Royal Virtues, and on your ſolemn Declaration to ſupport the Conſtitution of this your native Country both in Church and State, our Sorrows muſt abate, as we have the greateſt Reaſon to expect, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, every Bleſſing that can be enjoyed by a free and happy People.

We further beg Leave, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, to aſſure your Majeſty, that our Hearts are firmly united in Support of your Perſon and Government; and that we will chearfully embrace every Occaſion of manifeſting that Zeal, Affection and Fidelity, which is due to a great and gracious King.

That the Divine Providence may ever guard and protect your moſt Sacred Majeſty; that your Reign may be long and happy in the Affections of your People at home; that the Conduct and Courage of your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies may procure the Reſpect of all Nations abroad; that a laſting and honourable Peace may ſucceed the preſent juſt and neceſſary War; and that your Majeſty's Imperial Crown may deſcend to your Illuſtrious Family to all ſucceeding Ages, are our moſt ſincere and fervent Prayers.

Given under our Common Seal this 21ſt Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. William Bouverie, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Acceſſion to the Government of theſe Kingdoms, and, at the ſame Time, to expreſs our deep Sorrow for the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign.

Amidſt the general Concern for ſo ſudden and melancholy an Event, it is our great Conſolation to ſee a Prince aſcend the Throne, who (inheriting the Virtues as well as Crown of his Royal Grandfire) will ſecure to us the full Enjoyment of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, our Religious and Civil Rights.

The manly Contempt of Pleaſure (ſo apt to engroſs the Attention of Youth) and the ſteady Application to improve the excellent Endowments of your Mind, which ſo remarkably diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's early Days, gave the ſureſt Preſage, that you would adorn that Pre-eminence your Birth intitled you to, and by filling the Station you are now placed in, with the higheſt Dignity, increaſe the Splendor of your Illuſtrious Houſe.

Whatever Anxiety your Royal Breaſt may feel upon being thus ſoon called to the difficult and arduous Taſk of Government, at this important Criſis, not the leaſt Diffidence or Diſtruſt can ariſe in the Minds of your faithful People, who upon the beſt Grounds expect every Thing that is great and good, from a Prince determined to make the Welfare of His Native Country the chief Object of His Care and Ambition.

In this happy Situation, undiſturbed by Faction at home, freed from the Terror of hoſtile Invaſions, and the common Calamities of War, Britons cannot be too thankful.

With a juſt Confidence in the experienced Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the Conduct and Bravery

The following Addreſs of the [illegible]

Bravery of your Forces under the Divine Favour, may they not ſtill hope to triumph over their Enemies, and command an Honourable and Advantageous Peace.

We humbly aſſure your Majeſty nothing ſhall be wanting on our Parts; animated by the ſtrongeſt Motives of Duty and Gratitude, we will contribute every Thing in our Power to alleviate the Burden your Majeſty ſo chearfully ſuſtains for the Publick Weal.

Given under our Common Seal this thirteenth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1760, and in the Firſt Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by James Wigley, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receivevery graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellen Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, with thankful and joyful Hearts, congratulate you upon the Acceſſion of your moſt Sacred Perſon to the Imperial Throne of theſe Realms, wiſhing you a long and proſperous Reign over a happy and affectionate People.

We were deeply affected with the great Loſs this Nation ſuſtained by the ſudden Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late moſt gracious Sovereign, of bleſſed Memory, at ſo critical a Juncture: But our Misfortune would have been much leſs ſupportable, had it not been happily, and amply, repaired, by the peaceable Succeſſion of your Sacred Majeſty to his Crown and Dignity, amidſt the loudeſt Acclamations of your united and faithful Subjects; an Event doubly auſpicious to theſe your Kingdoms, as it has inſtated you, moſt Royal Sir, in the full Poſſeſſion of thoſe Rights and Prerogatives, which are legally derived to you from your Royal Progenitors: And as your Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed, at your Entrance into the Royal Government, to make a publick Declaration of your paternal Affection for this your native Country; of your firm Attachment to the Conſtitution both in Church and State; of your earneſt Intentions to promote the Glory and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms; and of your Reſolution to endeavour to proſecute the juſt and neceſſary War, in which we are now engaged, in the Manner moſt likely to procure an honourable and laſting Peace; whence your loyal Subjects have juſt Grounds to hope for every Thing that can contribute to the Magnificence and Splendour of your Reign, and the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Kingdoms.

You may, Great Sir, be aſſured of our hearty Endeavours, on all Occaſions, to promote the Glory of your Majeſty, and the Welfare of our Fellow-Subjects.

And that there never may be wanting an Heir of your Illuſtrious Family, to poſſeſs your Virtues, and inherit your Crown, and who may captivate the Hearts, as well as rule over the Perſons of your Subjects, is, Moſt Gracious Sovereign, the ardent Wiſh, and earneſt Prayer, of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects.

Given under our common Seal, this eleventh Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, Elder and Younger Brethren, of the Trinity Houſe, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sandwich, Maſter of the ſaid Trinity Houſe: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, Elder and Younger Brethren of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon, to expreſs our deep Concern at the Death of our late illuſtrious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, whoſe Meaſure of Life was filled with Glories equal to any, the Annals of theſe Nations can boaſt of. Permit us, Sir, at the ſame Time, amidſt the joyful and unanimous Acclamations of our Fellow Subjects, moſt ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty on your Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, to offer up our Services and hearty Endeavours for the Preſervation of your Royal Navy, and the Safety of Navigation in general; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will embrace every Occaſion of teſtifying our Loyalty, Zeal, and Duty to your Perſon and Government: And may the Divine Providence, whoſe tranſcendent Goodneſs has been ſo conſpicuous to this Land in the Midſt of Wars and Dangers, grant unto your Majeſty, according to the ardent Wiſhes of your faithful Subjects, long Life, Glory, and Proſperity.

Given under our Common Seal, this Fifteenth Day of November, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Banbury, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord North, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Banbury, beg Leave, with the profoundeſt Reſpect, to expreſs our deepeſt Concern, and to condole with your Majeſty, upon the ſudden and unexpected Loſs of your illuſtrious Grandfather.

The Loſs of a Prince, who unvariably made the Laws of the Land, and the Happineſs of his Subjects, the conſtant Rule of his Actions, through the Courſe of a long and glorious Reign, muſt have proved almoſt inſupportable to a truly loyal People, had not the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Things been pleaſed to deliver the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms into the Hands of your Sacred Majeſty.

From your Majeſty's excellent Diſpoſition, known Abilities, Princely Virtues, and early Attention to the Laws and Conſtitution of theſe your Kingdoms, we have the firmeſt Aſſurance of every Happineſs that a faithful united People can hope or deſire from the beſt and moſt gracious of Sovereigns.

With the greateſt Deference, and higheſt Satisfaction, we therefore moſt heartily congratulate your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Government of theſe Realms; and may the Almighty grant unto your Majeſty, a long, happy, and glorious Reign, and continue the Crown of theſe Realms in your Illuſtrious Houſe to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, this Seventeenth of November, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty.

The following Addreſs of the Grand Jury for the County of Middleſex, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury for the County of Middleſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury of the County of Middleſex, beg Leave to join the General Voice of Congratulation upon your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors; and, at the ſame Time, to condole with your Majeſty on the much-lamented Death of your Illuſtrious Grandfather, whoſe mild and conſtitutional Reign will render his Memory ever dear to theſe Kingdoms.

That Loſs (ſo ſudden and ſo deeply felt) has been greatly alleviated by your Majeſty's affectionate Declaration to the People of this your native Country, and by the Continuance of thoſe Councils and Meaſures which have placed this Nation in ſo reſpectable a Light.

Your Majeſty's declared and ſteady Regard to the Commercial Intereſt of this Kingdom in general, perſuades us, that the Trade, Commerce and extenſive Manufactures of this County in particular, will merit your Royal Attention.

Born and educated in a Land of Liberty, may your Majeſty long enjoy the Sweets of reigning in the Hearts of a free People, happy in the Proſpect of unnumbered Bleſſings to theſe Realms, from your many private, as well as publick Virtues: And permit us, Royal Sir, animated by your Example, and obedient to your Command, to aſſure you, that, as it is our peculiar Province, ſo it ſhall be our conſtant Care, to preſent every Offence againſt the publick Peace, and, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſuppreſs all Vice and Immorality; ſolliciteus, in every Reſpect, to make this County an Example of Virtue, and worthy your Majeſty's Reſidence.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cheſter, in Common-Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council, of your ancient and loyal City of Cheſter, do, in Behalf of ourſelves and fellow-Citizens, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Sacred Perſon, with Hearts that deeply ſhare in the general Calamity ſuſtained by your Majeſty's Imperial Dominions, in the Loſs of their late departed Sovereign. A Loſs ſo ſevere, muſt at all Times have been greatly felt and lamented, by the loyal Subjects of ſo excellent a Prince, who lived equally for His People's Happineſs and His own Glory. But we ſhould ſtill be ungrateful to that good Providence, which has for ſo many Ages protected, and in a particular Manner ſuperintended the Welfare of theſe Realms, if we were not now joyfully to accept and cheriſh that bright Sun, which diſpels thoſe mournful Clouds that ſo lately overſhadowed even the extremeſt Part of theſe Kingdoms.

Permit us therefore, Great Sire, with the moſt zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, to expreſs our ſincere Congratulations on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; nothing doubting, but that thoſe Princely Qualities, ſo early conſpicuous in your Majeſty, will bleſs us with a Sovereign, Virtuous, Wiſe, and Brave, whoſe Royal Example ſhall be a Pattern for the Beſt to follow, and whoſe Wiſdom and Valour ſhall enable him to triumph over all his Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal, the Nineteenth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Admiral Townſhend, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave, from the grateful Senſe and Remembrance of the many Bleſſings we enjoyed under the mild and juſt Government of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, in the moſt dutiful Manner, to condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of your late Royal Grandfather, a Loſs to theſe Nations your Majeſty can alone repair.

Permit us therefore with the trueſt Joy, and ſincereſt Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to your Perſon, to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

The Parental Affection your Majeſty has expreſſed for your People, and the tender Concern you ſhew for the Welfare and general Good of your native Country, demand the moſt grateful Return from us and our fellow Subjects; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unſhaken Fidelity, and inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government; and that we ſhall, upon all Occaſions, chearfully exert ourſelves to the utmoſt of our Power, in every Act of Duty, Loyalty and Affection.

The full and uninterrupted Enjoyments we poſſeſſed of all our Rights, Liberties, and Properties, under his mild and moſt auſpicious Reign, renders His Royal Memory moſt dear to us, and will be tranſmitted to Poſterity with the higheſt Reverence.

A Loſs, and at this critical Juncture too, the Nation would have moſt ſeverely felt, had not Providence been careful of their future Happineſs, in bleſſing us with a Succeſſor, in whom every Virtue is united; and were it not for the full Aſſurance they have, that your Majeſty, by imitating his Illuſtrious Example in promoting the Felicity and true Intereſt of His Subjects, will fix the Stability of your Throne in the Hearts of a generous and grateful People.

The Declaration your Majeſty has moſt graciouſly been pleaſed to make of your Regard to the Conſtitution of this your native Kingdom, happily eſtabliſhed on the Principles of Civil and Religious Liberty, and of your Attention to the Commercial Intereſt of this Nation, has bound us by Gratitude already to your Sacred Perſon, as well as by Duty and Inclination.

What Hopes they might entertain upon the ſudden Stroke for which we Mourn, they beſt can tell; but our Expectations are happily fixed upon a Certainty, by your Majeſty's peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, in the Flower of your Age, to the inexpreſſible Joy of all your Subjects; and by your Royal Declaration on aſſuming the Imperial Sceptre.

The Cordiality of our Congratulations would equal our Joy, if Words could expreſs the Sentiments of our Hearts on this moſt auſpicious Event. Permit our Prayers, Great Sir, to ſupply that Defect. It is an unſpeakable Satisfaction to us, and, we truſt, a happy Omen of the future Succeſs of your Majeſty's Reign, that the Divine Providence has placed your Majeſty on the Royal Throne, at a Time when its Glory is at ſo great a Height; when every odious Diſtinction, which divides and weakens a free People, no longer ſubſiſts amongſt us; when the Civil and Military are no longer ſeparate Characters, but co-operate, and give Force to each other in Support of the Common Cauſe; when every Rank, every Denomination, of your Majeſty's Subjects are united by the ſtrongeſt of all Ties, their common Intereſt, and the moſt noble of all Affections, the Love of their Country. Happy for us, that ſuch Bleſſings are now rendered more ſecure; that our Religious and Civil Rights have your Majeſty for their Protector; and that the Glory, with which theſe Kingdoms are ſurrounded, will receive from ſuch a Sovereign a new and additional Luſtre.
